SAILORS TACKLE AMATEUR TEAM

Russwood Park To Be Scene of Fast Game Wednesday.

Billy Haack has gathered one of the strongest amateur picked teams which has ever represented Memphis and will send the amateurs against the sailor team at Russwood park Wednesday at 2:30 in a free admission game. The sailors are reported to have the strongest hitting corps in the various navy teams, consequently Haack has directed his main efforts to obtaining exceptionally strong batting stars, and the lineup shows that he has carefully selected his players with the ultimate aim of winning the game. ## RIGHT OFF THE BAT

Tuesday was 1 to 6 day in the Southern League, as the Atlanta Braves played being decided by that score.

The Little Rock Travelers beat Birmingham 1 to 0 when Stone was in the lineup. The Braves' pitcher, Canavan, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The Phillies' pitcher, Roberts, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

The Chattanooga Lookouts scored one run in the first inning off Bill Ellis, pitching for Mobile, and the Lookouts won, 1 to 0. The run was scored on a sacrifice hit by Stiles. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

The Cleveland Indians made it two in a row from the Chicago White Sox by winning Tuesday. The Indians' pitcher, Stanley Coveleskie, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The Phillies' pitcher, Roberts, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

The New York Yankees had an easy time beating the lowly Macken Tugboat, when Quinn held the Philadelphia Phillies to four runs in five innings.

The Detroit Tigers hit the ball hard Tuesday and defeated St. Louis 8 to 1. The Tigers' pitcher, Lefty Williams, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The Phillies' pitcher, Roberts, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

Dick Robertson, ex-New Orleans pitcher, was introduced to Babe Ruth in Boston Tuesday, and on the first ball pitched, Robertson hit Babe Ruth. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

The Philadelphia Phillies won Tuesday's double bill, Boston winning the first and Philadelphia the second. Boston won the first game by a 3-2 score. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

Another even break occurred in the Cincinnati Reds' double bill, as the Reds won the first and the Phillies the second. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

The St. Louis Cardinals were victorious over Pittsburgh Tuesday, hitting Cooper hard and putting up nine runs. The Cardinals' pitcher, Gene Pauley, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The Phillies' pitcher, Roberts, pitched a brilliant game, allowing only one run in six innings. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

Dan Howley, once with the Phillies and for several years a minor league manager, is now battery coach of the Detroit Tigers.

The club looks good on paper. It should win but it is with-out question a strong team in every department. But something is lacking. It appears as though the club is showing that it has done so far. Just where the trouble lies is a mystery. The club is showing that it has done so far. Just where the trouble lies is a mystery.

DOUBLE BILLS CARDED.
 All over the league, doubleheaders are being played. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

BIRMINGHAM NEXT.
 The Braves will move over to Birmingham following Wednesday's games and will play the Atlanta Braves on Thursday. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

HE LIKES JESS.
 The following letter was in the morning's mail from a boxing fan who saw Jess Willard in his training camp a few days ago, who gives his impressions of the champion as he is today. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.

Jess Willard Wants to Name Referee of Big Bout July 4

Champion Main Obstacle in Way of Choosing Third Man in Ring—Dempsey Satisfied With Anybody.

TOLEDO, O., June 25.—Selection of a referee for the heavyweight championship bout between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4 may be announced today.

Tex Rickard, promoter, is to make a determined effort to obtain a list of ring officials acceptable to Willard and the Toledo boxing commission, which must be consulted before a final selection is made. Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, last night furnished Rickard and officials of the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control a list of officials acceptable to the challenger.

The list included Billy Roche, of New York; Jack Skelley, Yonkers, N. Y.; Jack Wells, of San Francisco; O. Peck, of Toledo; Kid McFarland, of Buffalo; Walter Kelly, of Buffalo; Bill Brown, of New York; and Jim Griffin, of San Francisco. Welch was referee of the Willard-Johnson championship contest in Havana.

Willard developed today is proving the main obstacle in holding up the selection of a referee. Willard, it was said, is claiming the right, by virtue of the fact that he is champion, to name the third man in the ring. The challenger's contention, however, is that the present uncertainty and delay in selecting a referee will be detrimental to the bout, and did not extend himself at any time.

Boxing experts were agreed today that Dempsey in his workout yesterday showed vast improvement. Perhaps it was because he was celebrating his twenty-fourth birthday. However, the challenger's work was fast and furious throughout. He boxed six rounds and gave Serg. Bill Tate and the Jamaican negro sparring partners a severe beating.

Willard's work was not impressive. He boxed 19 rounds and did not extend himself at any time. The game was a close one, with the Braves leading 3-2 in the ninth inning.
